The diagram illustrates three identical UI components arranged horizontally. Each component consists of the following elements from top to bottom:

- A subtitle: "A Subtitle"
- A placeholder image: A square box with a black border and a large 'X' formed by two diagonal lines, indicating a missing image.
- A block of placeholder text: Five lines of text using a decorative, stylized font where each character is a unique symbol.
- A button: A light blue rounded rectangle with a black border, containing the text "Button".
